What to expect while on tour...

You will be accompanied by one of our conscientious, experienced guides to ensure your holiday runs smoothly.

Our Whale Watching days will begin early in the morning to be first out to the whale calving grounds, departing usually between 7 and 8 am.

There will be a maximum of EIGHT or TWELVE passengers onboard, plus the Whale Guides, depending on which whale watch boat we are on. Only 4 swimmers plus a guide are allowed in the water at any one time. And with no more than 2 or 3 groups of swimmers onboard, you will have the maximum chance of enjoying the best possible experience.

You will be snorkelling with the Whales in open-ocean. You should have or attain adequate snorkelling skills, and undertake as much open ocean snorkelling experience before travelling to Tonga, to ensure you enjoy your time to the maximum. You will need your own snorkelling gear; ask us for advice on this, as it is essential that your equipment is suitable for the tour.

The water will be around 24- 26 degrees, depending on currents and air temperature.

Air temperature will be around 28-30 degrees, and quite humid. This being said, some seasons we have had cooler weather, around the 25 degree mark.

What to expect from Quest Tours prior to your tour...

We will book your airfares, both domestic and international, and organise your accommodation, transfers and Whale experiences.

You can expect a detailed packing list and travel updates in the weeks leading up to your departure date.

Vava'u

Vava'u is an island group of one large island and 40 smaller islands in Tonga. Vava'u rises 204 metres above sea level at Mt Talau. The capital is Neiafu, and has a population of around 6000 people.

We will be operating out of the Port of Refuge harbour, which is one of the best, most protected harbours in the world.

The Vava'u Island group in the Kingdom of Tonga is a spectacular tropical island paradise in the Pacific Ocean. It has a year-round climate suitable for swimming, snorkeling, diving and sailing. Some islands are ringed by white sand beaches while others have tropical forests, sea-level caves, and dramatic limestone cliffs with breathtaking vistas.

Remote and truly unspoiled, the waters around Vava'u are crystal clear with visibility exceeding 30 metres. Most of the islands are uninhabited, a few have villages, a few have very small unique resorts with exceptional food. There is abundant sea life with over 100 species of colorful tropical fish, giant clams, manta rays, sea turtles, spinner dolphins, and July-October the Humpback whales!

Truly a paradise, with the only Polynesian Monarchy, this is a remarkable place to explore.
